LOCAL BREVITIES.

The first frost of the season was visible Tuesday morning.

"Uncle Isaac" is at Carondelet, visiting Mrs. Priscilla Casey.

Let us all pull together and make the celebratien on the 27th a big thing.

The crossing at the Ironton depot is being repaired and made passable. None too soon. Chas. Signor got Tennyson's Poems at Chambers' Book Store. No. 79 was the lucky published in due time. The City Council held a short session last Monday afternoon, but we do not know that any important business, outside the regular routine, was transacted.

We hope our country cousins, their wives bands, lovers and sweethearts, will be on hand at the picule on the 27th, with baskets filled with good things.

Our enterprising fellow-citizen, Rob't Hotson, Esq., is quite ill with chills and fever. He has been too much in the swamp. of late, on the hunt for watermelons.

The Road Commissioner submitted to the County Court, last week, the plans for and an estimate of the cost of a foot bridge over Stout's creek near the Shut-in ford.

Last year considerable brick was burned in the Valley; this year, none. The consequence is, he who wants to build a flue has to shin around right lively to secure the ma-

The County Court has ordered that the keeping of certain paupers be let at public suction, and the Sheriff will comply with the order on the 28d inst., as per advertisement in this issue.. A man named Pinkley, "under the induence," we presume, got into an alterestion with the bar-keeper of the Ironton House saloon last Saturday night, and was cleaned given by the Liederkranz Singing Society last out in short order.

The State Grand Lecturer I. O. O. F. held forth to the brethren in Ironton last Monday night. There was a good attendance, and the Lecturer's remarks and instructions were commended by all.

An accident on the railroad somewhere south of here last Thursday morning crushed a man's skull, and Dr. Miles Farrar was sent down from Carondelet to take him up to the railroad hospital. The new hotel at Granite Quarry is under contract, and will be built as rapidly as pos-sible. It is Mr. Allen's intention to make it such a building as will reflect credit upon the taste and energy of the proprietor. James Buford, Collector for Iron county, is receiving taxes at the court house, where he may be found the balance of this week. He will be at Big Creek on Monday, and at Annapolls next Tuesday and Wednesday. The Arcadia College opened on Monday of ast week, with a larger attendance than usussions are being made daily. This natitution is, we believe on the high road to perity, and we are right glad to know it.

Four of Ironton's prominent citizens disocated their jaws last Monday afternoon, en deavoring to enunciate the name of a Suabian society in St. Louis, mention of which was nade in the city papers of that date. The society's name is—fill up your lungs, first— "Schwabenunterstitzungsverein"!

County Court, after transacting all necessary business, adjourned Thursday evening. Judge Clarkson's health improved so that he was enabled to occupy his seat on the bench Wednesday and Thursday, and dramshop licenses were granted as usual, that lying dispatch to the Globe-Democrat to the contrary notwithstanding.

Henry Scharber was arrested at Middlebrook last Thursday morning, for disturbing the peace and assaulting Henry Arnoldi. He was on a big drunk, and when deputy con- State. table O'Leary went to arrest him he showed fight. But he had to come under the law. He was brought down to Ironton tried be- picnic. fore Judge Dinger, and paid $12.60 for his obstreperousness.

There will be a meeting at the Good Templar's Hall this (Wednesday) evening for the purpose of reviving the Young Men's Debating Club. Their intention is not to have any regular meeting, but on call of the Chairman to convene and discuss public questions. All are requested to come and take an interest in the discussions, which they will strive to make profitable and enjoyable.

When our Republican friends have another mass meeting, we suggest, in the interest of harmony, that they call it in 'two sections -one for the "Post-Office Crew," and the other for the "Land-Office Squad." Last Saturday, what with the discussions, and the motions to amend, to lay on the table, etc., every side of the same question. Now, this call future meetings in two sections.

From the St. Louis Globe-Democrat of last Sunday: "A very agreeable excursion was Saturday evening. The destination was Pilot Knob, and, taking the 9 o'clock train on Saturday, reached there at 2 o'clock the next morning. Leaving their chartered cars on a side-track, they adjourned to the Hotel Steffen, where they partook of a substantial breakfast. The party inspected the smithing-works and then drove to the granite quarries, about four George Mrs Emma miles distant, returning later to dinner at the hotel. A photographer, one of the guests, Huff A DWm struck off a picture of the group among the works. At 2 o'clock they all boarded the cars, and the regular train coming in half an hour, bore them with lightning speed homeward, arriving in the city at 5:30."

Horse Stealing.

Last Thursday a man named Wm. Gibso rode into Fredericktown on a gray horse, and leading a mule. After several efforts he succeeded in selling the mule for $90; it was well worth $125. Then he tried to dispose of the horse, and this, with certain peculiar surroundings, begat suspicion in the minds of several persons, who began questioning him. He claimed to hall from a settlement four or five miles southeast of Fredericktown, and thus "gave himself away," as there happened to be a citizen of that locality in town, who of course when appealed to knew nothing of Gibson. After a little further investigation. the Sheriff arrested Gibson, who finally acknowledged that he had stolen the animals at etc., we understand some of the participants a point near Iron Mountain. Arriving at Fredericktown, there was no trouble in getting ceived at the Book Store, and will be sold at | the horse, but they had to ride sixteen miles further for the mule, to the home of its late purchaser. Getting the mule, the party returned to Fredericktown. Sheriff Fletcher then asked for the custody of the prisoner, but the Madison county officials refused to surrender him-a bit of official discourtesy which, we are safe to say, will never be imitated by an Iron county official. There is no you bet. Last Wednesday a nine-pound girl doubt that Gibson has accomplices, and our movement, of which we will probably hear officers hoped to secure them through him; but they can now accomplish little or nothing, as the Madison Circuit Court convenes shortly, and the trial will be had and the prisoner sent up long before the Iron County Circuit Court comes on. OUT ALL ROUND.

Friend Ake-You no doubt think me a little unregular about writing to your papers but I don't think they treated me wright about my speech at the Corners. I feel like thumping that reporter of yourn. I always thought it was the editur's business to curtect papers before putting them in his paper; fur no man giftld with the power of ters of spellin' an' dashes an' sitch like,

But I want to tell you, Mr. Editur, that 'm apposed to the whole business, from first to last; ain't you? I mean that Republican County Convention held at Ironton last Saturday, I want it distinctly understood that can't give it my support and sympathy. think the Republicans have treated me very mean, and I give them fair warning that, if they don't mind, me an' my party will fine

Now, you know that I'd never a-bin a canlidate if I dadn't a-got the promise of the eading Republicans of the county that hey'd get their party to vote for me solid They are a-jinin' with the Greenback party everywhere else, and why should I be made the exception? I suppose some trouble must ave arose between the Stalwart wing of he party and the Half-Breeds; and the Crumbs were about to get Pecked, and compromise was somehow necessary.

But I might a-know'd they'd a-gone bac n me: fur didn't they go back on Garfield an' Hayes an' Dorsey an' the rest of 'em? That little trick to get me summoned as witness to that dog lawsuit at the Corners, was one of Tom Foley's dodges to keep me from the Convention. If I'd a-bin there they would not have nominated a man agin me. With all the Greenback vote, an' the Republican vote, an' the dissatisfied Democrati vote, I'd a-bin elected; and so that little trick was one to beat me. But the Republicans can't elect their man without the Greenback vote, and I am mighty certain they won't git it. Sam Gay can't be elected, for their will be split in the party; fur didn't Capt. Bradley promise to canvass the county for me? I don't believe he will go back on me and hely to elect my Republican opponent.

I don't know just what I'll do, Mr. Editur. till I have a chance to consult with the Dem ocrats, fur I know they won't go back o their promise. UNKLE JERRY.
